

Each week, several hundred people take advantage of NUMMI's free public tours.

A video discusses the origin of this historic joint venture between Toyota and General Motors, provides company statistics, explains our manufacturing processes and highlights basic concepts of the Toyota Production System. The video is followed by a tram ride through the assembly plant.

Date: Friday, June 20, 2008

Time 12:30

Location: 45500 Fremont Boulevard
Fremont, CA 94538

Contact Chuck Sathre (916) 719-2679

I anticipate that we will be meeting some place in Sacramento (8:30 to 9:30) and caravanning down there.

More details to follow.

Please note:

We have reservations for 18 people, so you must let me know before June 6th, if you want to go.

- The tour is free
- Tours take 75 minutes

Restrooms:

Rest room facilities are available in the Tour Center, but not during the 45-minute tram ride.

Dress:

Safety glasses will be issued and will fit over prescription glasses. Visitors are asked to wear closed-toe shoes and heels under two inches.

Refreshments:

No food or drink is allowed.

Photos:

Cameras/cell phones with cameras are not allowed in the building. Please leave them in your vehicle.